Subject: Smarten Power Systems Limited Appointed as Channel Distributor for Exide Technologies (Europe) – Industrial & Energy Storage Solutions in India

Dear Sir / Madam,

Pursuant to Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, we wish to inform you that Smarten Power Systems Limited has received authorization to act as a channel distributor in India for selected energy storage and battery products of Exide Technologies (Europe). This authorization does not constitute an exclusive distribution arrangement and is subject to customary commercial terms.

Exide Technologies is a globally established energy storage company headquartered in Europe, with over a century of experience in industrial and mission-critical power solutions. The company operates manufacturing and R&D facilities across multiple European countries and serves customers across multiple geographies in data centres, telecom infrastructure, utilities, and energy transition applications.

Under this authorization, Smarten Power Systems Limited will distribute selected Products, to be marketed under the following brands from Exide Technologies' Energy Solutions portfolio:

1. 'Sprinter' (AGM batteries for UPS and data centres)
2. 'Marathon' (long-life AGM batteries for critical infrastructure)
3. 'Sonnenschein' (Gel OPzV batteries for telecom, utilities, and solar applications)
4. 'Classic' (flooded OPzS batteries for utility and infrastructure use)
5. 'Solition' (lithium-ion based energy storage systems)

Strategic Partnership

Commenting on the results, Mr. Arun Bhardwaj, Managing Director of Smarten Power Systems Limited stated,

“Data centres, utilities, and telecom networks demand globally proven and reliable energy solutions. Exide Europe’s strong credentials in these segments align well with our focus on serving critical infrastructure customers in India. This authorization strengthens our ability to offer advanced energy storage solutions to address the evolving needs of India’s power and digital infrastructure.”

This development is in line with Smarten Power Systems Limited’s strategy to strengthen its presence in critical power, energy storage, and infrastructure-focused solutions, catering to sectors where reliability, performance, and scalability are paramount.

The authorization is at an early stage, and any further details, including commercial implications, will be disclosed as and when applicable, in compliance with regulatory requirements.
